Came Around by Wheeling.

Yesterday morning a bridge on the Pittsburgh division of the B. & O. road between Cumberland and Pittsburgh burned down, and trains from the east via Pittsburgh could not run. They were brought to Wheeling via Grafton and then run back east to Pittsburgh over the W. P. & B. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a special dinner was gotten up at the McClure house for a large number of passengers from one of these delayed trains.

In Squire Arkle's Court.

The following cases were disposed of in Squire Arkle's court Saturday: In the case of the state vs. James Smith on complaint made by Charles Smith for kicking the latter's son, Smith was fined $5 and costs; the case of the state vs. Frank Wilhelm, in which the defendant was charged with assaulting John Cox on Friday, was set for hearing this evening at 7 o'clock; the case of state vs. Joseph W. Garner, charged with cutting, was continued until next Saturday, as one of the prosecuting witnesses, McGrain, is unable to appear at present.

Mr. Allen at Bethany.

The third lecture of the spring course at Bethany College was delivered Friday night by James Lane Allen. His subject was "An Hour in American Literature," and was treated in a most thorough, scholarly manner. It was beautifully finished and rounded off, showing a most intimate acquaintance not only with the literature of this country, but also with that of other nations. Such culture and finish and depth of thought are rather rare among the modern lecturers. From the opening to the close he held his hearers' intense interest. Mr. Allen is no doubt well known to readers through his stories, published in Harper's and the Century magazines, also in book form, and which are making him famous.

Transfers Recorded.

The following transfers of real estate were left for record at Clerk Hook's office on Saturday:

Deed made February 12, 1893, by Dennis A. Toomey and wife to Charles G. Grosser, for a piece of land on the east side of Moyston street. Consideration, $650.

Deed made January 25, 1893, by Franz Kopyrowsky and wife to August Hagendorn, for the west half of lot No. 18A, in Division D, on a plat recorded in deed book 492, page 492. Consideration, $1,000.

Deed made February 14, 1893, by John J. Jacob and H. M. Russell, special commissioners, to James Henderson, for lots Nos. 32, 33, 47 and 49, in the plat near Altenheim. Consideration, $2,250.

Deed made same date by same parties to James McCann, for lots Nos. 34, 35, 45 and 46, on the above plat. Consideration, $2,450.

The Funeral of G. A. Stucky.

The funeral of G. A. Stucky, the young man connected with the wholesale grocery firm, Neill & Ellingham, who died Thursday, took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 59 South Broadway, Island, Rev. E. H. Dornblaser, of the English Lutheran church, officiating. After the funeral services at the house were concluded, the funeral cortege moved over to the city to the Elm Grove station, where a special train was in waiting, and took the remains and attendants, including Wheeling Lodge No. 9 and Wheeling Encampment No. 11, I. O. O. F., in uniform, to Stone Church cemetery, where the interment took place. The pall bearers from Wheeling Encampment No. 11 were D. W. Martin, C. E. Van Keuren, August Marschner and Frank Morris; from Wheeling Lodge No. 9 H. A. Albright, Loring Downs, O. B. Porter and W. W. Stewart.

STREET CAR STRIKE.

The Cars Run Regularly Yesterday Without any Trouble.

FEW PATRONS USE THEM, HOWEVER.

Passengers Average About One to a Car—Several Additional Extra Police Secured Saturday, and One Quits After One Day's Service—Boy Arrested for Obstructing the Track.

There was no special new feature of interest Saturday or yesterday in the street car strike. Cars were run at regular intervals by non-union men, but the patronage was even less than on Friday. In fifty cars coming up from the South Side, of which close observation was taken, the passengers averaged pretty evenly one to a car. The highest number was nine, and many cars passed without a passenger. On the Island line the patronage was a little better, but not much. The company must be operating at a heavy loss.

Saturday several additional special police were sworn in and went on duty, while one of those who went on Friday resigned on Saturday.

The only ripple of a disturbance heard of Saturday was when a boy named Lew Dunlap threw a stone at a car. He was arrested, and this stopped the boys from their mischief.

No cars are yet run to Benwood or across the river, and it is not certain when they will be started to run through.

Saturday one of the cars ran off the track on the curve at Fourteenth and Market streets, and it required hard work and a considerable length of time for another car to pull it on. A crowd gathered, and the ubiquitous boys would spring on the platform, ring the bell and run. No damage was done, however.

Card from the Union.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.
Sir:—I see in yesterday's Register a card signed by an old citizen, and desire to reply to the same. The gentleman don't seem to be very well posted in regard to the way and manner the street car company does business. I desire to say that the company employ nothing to do with the company employing whom they saw fit to employ. Further, that the company never undertook to weed out its employees, only in some of them took an active part in its organization. Moreover, Manager Jolly always did admit that his employees were as good a set of men as he ever had in his employ.

FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

Wm. M. Handlan Goes to Jail and His Attorney Pays Costs.

Matters took a sensational turn in Judge Paul's court Saturday afternoon, ending in the arrest of William M. Handlan and Attorney Dennis O'Keefe for contempt of court.

The circumstances which brought out this state of affairs were as follows: Mr. Handlan is the defendant in the divorce suit of Handlan vs. Handlan. On Friday an order was made requiring Mr. Handlan to turn over to Mrs. Handlan certain property. This the former, acting on the advice of his attorney, Dennis O'Keefe, refused to do. Judge Paul heard of this Saturday, and at once directed rules to be issued for the arrest of both Handlan and O'Keefe, which was done about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

When the matter came up before the court, Mr. O'Keefe said he had advised his client not to obey the ruling, but that it was his intention at the time to apply for a stay of execution. Mr. H. M. Russell appeared for the plaintiff, and Judge Jacob for the defendants. After argument, Mr. O'Keefe was dismissed after paying costs, and Handlan was committed to jail until he obeyed the ruling of the court, in turning over the property.

In the Circuit Court.

The following were the most interesting matters of routine in the circuit court Saturday:

Elizabeth Pettit vs. Samuel Levi; breach of promise, $10,000 damages claimed; Atkinson and Flick attorneys for plaintiff.

Emma Willestaedt vs. Alexander Weiss and others; damages claimed, $1,700; Caldwell & Caldwell attorneys for plaintiff.

Sarah M. Mendel vs. W. M. Handlan and Mary C. Handlan, damages claimed, $800; confession in open court before Judge Campbell; A. C. Clarke attorney for plaintiff.

THE HUB—ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS.

A Universal Cry

Comes from every one of our department managers. As each day brings fresh supplies of Spring Goods, each day adds the cry of more room. With double our usual stock bought for the coming season we are certainly in a predicament to satisfy their wants. There are no if's or an's about it. Room is what they need and must have. There is only one way to get it. Prices must be cut to the quick. The prices we'll make on everything this week will be the magnet that'll draw the dollars from the purse of the most inveterate bargain hunters. The low prices on Overcoats and Suits during this week will be the talk of the town. Don't fail to see our north window this week. Our early arrivals in Neckwear, with the prices of 25 and 50 cents, are double value. Nothing in the city to match them for style. Don't your boy need a good pair of Knee Pants to patch out the old winter suit until you buy him one for spring? If so, we've just received over 300 dozen, at THE HUB'S prices, which are always right. Call this week, by all means, if you want a dollar do double duty.
